PASTOR SEEKS DIVORCE

With Custody of Children and Will Not be Opposed—Mrs. Chapin Working at Mt. Vernon as a Domestic.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Mt. Vernon, Feb. 19.—"He loves another girl," declared Mrs. Mable Chapin, wife of Rev. Harvey L. Chapin, pastor of the Fredericktown Baptist church, who filed suit for divorce here yesterday. "He has frequently told me so," she continued. "After our trouble broke a week ago, I went to his study and turned on the gas, intending to commit suicide. He found me and again told me of his love for another girl."

Sad eyed, and between sobs, Mrs. Chapin bared her broken heart to interviewers who have besieged her since the sensational story of her relations with Dr. C. H. Wright the village dentist, became public.

She had just been told of her husband's suit for divorce which was filed at noon Wednesday. In his petition, Rev. Mr. Chapin charges statutory offenses against his wife, and names Dr. Carlton Wright, a Fredericktown dentist. He gives Jan. 5 and Jan. 12, 1914, as specific dates and alleges that the parties were guilty of similar conduct at other times since October 1, 1913. The minister seeks a decree of divorce and the custody of their two children.

SENATOR GORE IS CLEARED OF WOMAN'S CHARGE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Oklahoma City, Feb. 19.—Scores of messages congratulating Thomas P. Gore, United States senator from Oklahoma on his exoneration on charges of improper conduct made by Mrs. Minnie E. Bond in a suit for $50,000 damages were received by the senator today.

The senator said he would spend today and tomorrow here after which he would go to Hot Springs for a short vacation before he returns to Washington to resume his duties in the senate. He said that he had never doubted the outcome of the suit against him.

By a unanimous verdict Senator Gore, United States Senator from Oklahoma, won the damage suit. The jury was out less than five minutes. The verdict was rendered at 5:45 o'clock.

When Judge Clark, in reading the verdict, reached the words "find for the defendant," pandemonium broke in the courtroom. Hundreds, awaiting the decision, climbed on chairs and cheered the blind senator. Hats were thrown in the air and came down to be thrown up again. The demonstration lasted twenty minutes and the bailiffs were powerless to stop it. When the noise had quieted down Judge Clark finished reading the verdict.

Senator Gore was standing when the judge began to read. At the momentous words he stepped back as if dazed and his wife seized him in her arms and hugged him convulsively.

Representative Covington of Maryland, Drafting An Interstate Trade Commission Bill

J. Harry Covington—accident on the J. please—is the statesman from the Eastern Shore. He ranks high on the House Committee on interstate Commerce, has talked with the President regarding interstate trade commission legislation now hanging fire in the committee, and he will have the most to do with its construction. Covington has forged his way to the front in Congress quickly. He is a lawyer, who quit a practice at Easton to go after the fleshpots at Washington. Easton, by the way, is in Maryland. Easton was not the goal of Pizarro when he stumbled off to Peru, nor of Vespucci when he played a star cast as advance man for Columbus, but Easton has banks and life and fire insurance companies, and Covington is a director in them all. Covington is active and studies legislation. He has strong, quick analytical faculties. He is an Episcopalian and entertains largely. He has a big touring car and enjoys rambling about in the suburbs. He is a Kappa Sigma and a member of the Baltimore Club.

Interest Becomes Intense In Advocate's Contest; Everybody Talks Pictures

While an unexpectedly large number of people started to solve the Booklovers' contest pictures when No. 1 appeared a week ago last Tuesday, it took several days to arouse widespread interest but now on the sixth day of the contest people are coming in this profitable pastime by the hundreds. Every day seems a tremendous increase. This is reflected in the heavy street sales, in the continually growing demand for the paper in Newark homes and in the out of town subscriptions.

The street sales have more than doubled, the local deliveries have greatly increased and the delivery of the Advocate by mail to points outside of Newark is larger today than ever before in the history of the paper.

This contest was inaugurated for the purpose of advertising the Advocate, of introducing the paper into new homes. This newspaper believes in "taking its own medicine" and has freely used the advertising columns of the newspapers of Columbus, Zanesville, Mt. Vernon, Delaware, Lancaster, Somerset, Coshocton, and other towns in the limited territory included in the contest. In order to be just to the hundreds upon hundreds of new found friends, this newspaper decided to reprint the first six pictures for the benefit of our readers and as a check for those who had solved the first six pictures. This was done last Tuesday and it was enthusiastically received. Those who had solved the pictures day by day were glad to have a chance of checking their solutions and the new readers were delighted to get a start without the handicap of a week.

Right now is the time to start. Picture No. 9 appears today. Back coupons at this office at the price of single copies of the paper 2c. Catalogues for those who want them 25c. by mail 27c. Prizes, 100 or more, valued at over $3,000.

The whole community is talking "pictures," everybody is going in this profitable pastime. You who may not have entered will be welcome. It costs nothing to enter and there is no red tape or troublesome details about it. Read the simple rules under today's picture, order the first 3 coupons and get busy. It's a lot of fun, it is an educational pastime and the prizes for at least 100 people are worth winning.

Tears sprang from her eyes and sobs shook her frame. The senator remained standing, silent, but with a smile of gratitude on his face. Hundreds thronged around to grasp his hand and shout congratulations. Cries of "Speech!" went up, but the senator's voice could not be heard. To newspaper men he said:

"The only statement I have to make is my strengthened belief in the fact that truth always triumphs." Mrs. Bond fell backward in her chair and was attended by her husband. She and some of her attorneys left the courtroom immediately.

The foreman of the jury, Henry Carpenter, said a few minutes after he was discharged:

"We have had our minds made up four days. I have looked at Mrs. Bond during this trial and have longed to seize her and make her deny the charges against our blind senator. There were seven Republicans on that jury and I can truthfully say every one of them will be glad to vote for Senator Gore at the next election. Of course the five Democrats will do likewise."

HAITI REBELS DEFEATED TWICE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cape Haitien, Haiti, Feb. 19.—Two serious defeats were inflicted today on the armies of the rebel leader, Senator Davilmar Theodore, at Grande Riviere, fifteen miles from here and at Limbe, west of Cape Haitien, General Paul, commander in chief of the rebel forces was killed in one of the battles.

The rebels retreated toward Cape Haitien, pursued by the government troops.

MACKAYS DIVORCED IN FRANCE

Friends Surprised Because of Place and Manner In Which Degree Was Granted

DAMAGE SUIT DROPPED

By Mrs. Blake Who Had Asked for $1,000,000 for Alleged Alienation of Husband's Affections—Husband Gets Children.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Feb. 19.—The announcement today that Clarence H. Mackay, financier and president of the Postal Telegraph-Cable company, and Catherine D. Mackay, his wife, had been granted a mutual divorce by the French courts on February 11, came as a surprise, not because it was unexpected but because of the place and manner in which the decree was granted. For many months the couple had been living apart and society's only query was when a suit for divorce would be filed.

It was thought Portland would be the place, as Mrs. Mackay leased a house and established a residence there, but early in the year she left her Maine home for Paris and soon thereafter her husband appeared in the French capital.

There were rumors of a reconciliation then, but these were denied by Mr. Mackay. It now appears that the trip of the two to Europe was in accordance with a plan agreed upon which the separation suit of Mrs. Joseph A. Blake against Dr. Joseph A. Blake, the famous surgeon, was decided in the wife's favor without contest and Mrs. Blake dropped her suit for $1,000,000 against Mrs. Mackay for alienating Mr. Blake's affections.

Counsel for both Mr. and Mrs. Mackay made announcement of the mutual divorce last night. Both statements were brief. They recited that both sides charged desertion, Mrs. Mackay filing suit first. Mr. Mackay followed with a contest suit. The decree, it was stated, gave the custody of the couple's children to Mr. Mackay with the right to visit them accorded to Mrs. Mackay. Mutual divorces, it was explained, were permissible under the French law.

PITTSBURGERS IN NO DANGER FROM A FLOOD

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Pittsburgh, Feb. 19.—Fears of river and manufacturing interests that the rivers around Pittsburgh would be at flood stage before nightfall were dispelled by the local weather forecaster early today with the announcement that the heavy rain of last night had soaked into the snow and would not be released suddenly into tributaries of the Monongahela, Allegheny and Ohio rivers. The Monongahela river was rising but no flood was expected within the next 24 hours.

There is water equivalent of one and one-half inches of snow over the Monongahela and Allegheny water sheds, but unless this is suddenly released by unusual warm weather, there is no danger anticipated.

TRAFFIC DELAYED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Feb. 19.—A fine rain, which freezing, covered the sidewalks with a slippery surface that made pedestrians seek the middle of the road, began falling in New York early today on top of the snow that the blizzard piled up. The ice coating on street car and elevated roads delayed traffic and on streets where the snow had been removed, graft horses fell continually.

On Long Island a flagman slipped and fell under a train to his death. Minor accidents were reported.

EPILEPTIC KILLS ONE, WOUNDS TWO; FALLS UNCONSCIOUS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Hutchinson, Kans., Feb. 19.—In what the police believe was a sudden fit of insanity, Abraham Ostatter, a pawnbroker here today shot and killed his mother-in-law, Mrs. Joseph Coahn, then shot his wife, Mrs. Sadie Ostatter and his father-in-law, Joseph Coahn, inflicting probable fatal wounds. Ostatter fell to the floor unconscious. A physician pronounced him suffering from epilepsy. A suit for divorce brought by Mrs. Ostatter is pending in the district court.

SULZER IS NOW BESIEGED WITH MANY CLAIMS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Albany, N. Y., Feb. 19.—In settling a bill rendered by a man employed as gate tender at the executive mansion during the recent impeachment proceedings, William Sulzer is believed by attorneys to have made himself liable for many accounts he contracted personally during the proceedings. Ralph B. Tompkins was the gate tender and he brought suit against the former governor for $96. The case was settled for $109, being the full amount of the claim, costs and interests.

Mr. Sulzer maintained that the claim was a charge against the state and in settling he took an assignment of it from Mr. Tompkins.

It is believed that holdovers of a great number of unpaid claims of a similar nature will seek to hold the former governor personally responsible for their money.

SEARCH IS ABANDONED FOR KINEO

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Feb. 19.—The United Fruit steamer Metapan, which reported yesterday that she had paused in her voyage to this port from Panama in an effort to aid the schooner Kineo, in trouble off Cape Hatteras, sent a wireless message here today saying that she had given up the search for the schooner and would reach New York late today.

Among the passengers is Col. Geo. W. Goethals, chief engineer of the Panama canal, who is coming to confer with President Wilson with reference to permanent organization of the canal zone of which he has been appointed governor.

SHIP IS ILL-FATED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Norfolk, Va., Feb. 19.—Wireless calls sweeping over the sea from the radio towers on the middle Atlantic coast, revenue cutters and numbers of steamships today found no trace of the five masted schooner Kineo, of Bath, Maine, last reported yesterday making twelve inches of water an hour and in a disabled condition.

The schooner, with her crew of eleven, had been in bad fortune for the last month; twice she had her sails blown away by heavy gales and once put into port for safety. When she was sighted by the steamer City of Atlanta yesterday, it did not seem necessary for the liner to take off her crew and the revenue cutter Onondaga began a search. The Kineo was then 160 northeast of Diamond shoals.

GOETHALS ON BOARD

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Feb. 19.—Col. George W. Goethals, chairman of the Isthmian canal commission, is aboard the steamship Metapan, due to arrive in New York late today, but which received wireless reports of the schooner Kineo in distress north of Diamond Shoals and went in search of her. This may delay the arrival of the Metapan until tomorrow.

Colonel Goethals was recently nominated by President Wilson as the first civil governor of the Panama Canal zone and is coming home to confer with President Wilson and Secretary of War Garrison on the subject of the civil government of the zone that will come into existence on April 1.

TENNIS PLAYER STABS HIMSELF WITH SCARF PIN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
San Francisco, Feb. 19.—Shattered health, owing to worry, Carlton Gardner, at one time a noted tennis player, yesterday stabbed himself with a scarf pin while on a visit to members of his family in Palo Alto.

According to his physician, Gardner had been ill for some time, due largely to worry because he was not winning his way as an artist rapidly enough. In the season of 1912 Gardner was ranked among the ten best players in this country.

SEALED EXPRESS CAR

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Stamford, Conn., Feb. 19.—A sealed express car filled with packages shipped from New York by the American Express Company was burned here today. The loss will be heavy as among the packages burned were a number containing valuable silks.

TRAIN IS WRECKED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Alberta, Minn., Feb. 19.—A passenger train of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railway, southbound to Kansas City, was wrecked one mile north of here early today. The entire train left the rails and the engineer, fireman and three passengers were injured.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Macon, Ga., Feb. 19.—Funeral services for Senator Bacon of Georgia were held here today. All business was suspended while the body was buried.

MARSHAL ADVANCES THEORY OF MURDER IN GRANVILLE TRAGEDY

Heavy Wooden Mallet and Flatiron Found Close To Man's Body While No Debris Was Heavy Enough To Cause Injuries

SUSPECT ARRESTED IN NEWARK THURSDAY

Stillon's Home Was Destroyed by Fire Wednesday Evening—His Charred Body Was Removed From Ruins—Pres. Chamberlain of Denison Aids in the Search For Corpse—Coroner is Investigating.

Declaring that there was sufficient evidence of foul play to warrant a thorough investigation, Marshal Joe Shipley of the village of Granville will inquire fully regarding the movements of Stillon and his companions in the two hours or more immediately preceding the fire.

That a quarrel took place in the shack is reasonably certain and the man who first gave the alarm and rang the fire bell will be asked to explain his lack of interest in the progress of the blaze. After notifying the marshal and going to a house near the Stillon home, he seemed to lose interest in the spectacular blaze. He is said to have declared that the body was found, when word to that effect had not reached the house where he sat by a stove, having represented that he was suffering from exposure.

Stillon's skull was crushed by a heavy blow upon the upper right side of the head. This fact was shown by a cursory examination of the body at the Jones morgue. More than that, a wooden mallet, measuring three inches square, was found lying in the ashes almost against the dead man's body. Besides this, a flat iron, a deadly weapon in the hands of an angered man, was found almost at his feet. Stillon's body was fully clothed when the fire was started. This was proven by the fact that portions of his felt boots still hung to his legs and the burned fragments of his coat and trousers also hung about portions of his body.

It is known that Stillon had trouble with some of his acquaintances and is said to have declared that he would "kill the ————". If he's too big for me to lick, I can shoot him."

The theory is offered that this old quarrel was renewed Wednesday night, a fight followed in which Stillon was killed and the shack was fired to conceal the crime.

Coroner Witzlarch visited Granville Thursday morning, examined the body and conferred with Marshal Shipley. The coroner was apprised of the information which the village official had collected in the course of his investigation and will make a complete inquiry into the case. About noon Thursday, Marshal Shipley came to Newark and arrested a man who refused to give his name. He is a stranger in Granville, but he is being held until the investigation of the fire is completed by village and county officials.

Father Rushes Across Two States In Effort To Locate Missing Girl

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Newcastle, Ind., Feb. 19.—Dr. W. A. Winters left here today for Middleport, O., to investigate the report that his daughter, Catherine, aged 10, who disappeared a year ago, has been found there. The report stated that the little girl had recognized the picture of the Winters boy, printed with hers as that of her brother. It was stated that the sheriff of Meigs county, O., does not believe the girl at Middleport is the missing Indiana child. The girl is known there as Rose Davis.

Found At Middleport.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Feb. 19.—Catherine Winters, the 10-year old girl who disappeared from her home in Newcastle, Ind., last March, and for whom a nation-wide search has been in progress ever since, is thought to have been found in Middleport, O., a town in Meigs county on the Ohio river. The girl found at Middleport has been since last fall in the company of a man named Joe Davis, who was arrested two days ago at Middleport on the charge of forgery. She had been living with relatives of Davis in the hills near Middleport and was discovered accidentally through the arrest of Davis.

Davis came to Middleport with the little girl last fall. People in the town knew little either of him or his companion. It was not long until Davis, who is a man in the sixties, got into trouble. He was arrested for bootlegging, but representing himself as a civil war veteran induced some of the veterans at Middleport to go on his bond. The bond he eventually forfeited.

Two days ago the authorities at Middleport approached Davis' home to arrest him on the charge of forging a $50 check. Davis ran out of the rear door and tried to make for the hills. On the way he met a companion and asked him to see to it that the little girl was taken over the Ohio river to West Virginia. But Davis was soon caught and the girl also was discovered at the house of Davis' relatives in the hills.

When questioned she did not remember much about the past excepting that she was taken away from Indiana a long time ago.

When shown Cincinnati newspapers containing the Winters girl's picture and those of her father and of other persons whom she had associated with at New Castle, the girl at Middleport seemed to recognize them.

Soon after the capture of Davis, the Middleport marshal arrested a man who is thought to be Davis' confederate and who was about to leave the vicinity. The supposed confederate had in his possession two suitcases which were found to

Mr. Ashbrook, who is in vigorous health, greatly enjoyed the family gathering and appreciated the many congratulations extended to him during the day by his friends. Among those present were Hon. and Mrs. Wm. A. Ashbrook, M. P. Ashbrook and wife of Granville, J. L. Moore and family of Pataskala, Charles E. Garner and wife of Lansing, Mich., and William A. Ashbrook, Jr., of Johnstown.

Advocate Booklovers' Contest Prize Picture

WHAT BOOK IS MEANT BY THIS PICTURE?

No. 9

COUPON NO. 9

Newark Advocate Booklovers' Contest.

Title.....
Author.....
My Name.....
My Address.....
(9) FEBRUARY 19, 1914. (9)

Clip out your coupons neatly, and fill them out clearly and plainly, remembering that in the event of a tie for any prize between two or more contestants, neatness and clear writing will win the judges' favor. The picture is to be a part of the coupon. Do not detach the coupon from the picture.

Send no answers whatever to the Advocate until the contest is ended by the publication of Picture No. 70. Any answers received before that time will be destroyed and will not be counted. Read the rules carefully.

Rules of the Booklovers' Contest.

Any person may compete in this contest who lives either in Licking, Delaware, Knox, Coshocton, Muskingum, Perry, Fairfield or Franklin counties, Ohio, except employees of the Advocate or members of their families.

Answers to the picture must be written upon the coupon blank which will be printed every day with each picture during the seventy publication days the contest will last. Both picture and blank must be clipped from the paper, and the blank properly filled in with the name of book and the author's name together with the name and address of the contestant written clearly and plainly in the space provided. Not more than one person's name may be written on any coupon.

Each picture will represent the title of only one book, but there may be some pictures that suggest the title of several books. For the benefit of contestants, and to allow for this variety of solution, any contestant may give as many as five answers to any picture, at will; but not more than one solution may be written on any coupon. If the contestant gives two answers as likely to include the correct one, two coupons must be used. If three answers, three coupons, and so on.

In each instance, whether the contestant gives one answer or five answers to any picture, both the picture and coupon must be used for each of the answers; and not more than five answers to any picture will be permitted. If any one of the five answers that may be given to any picture is correct, the contestant will be credited for the correct solution and will not have the incorrect ones counted against his or her chances. Prizes will be awarded to every contestant by the Contest Judges, who sends in the largest number of correct answers upon the smallest number of coupons. Thus, if a contestant gives the correct answer to 70 of the pictures and uses only 70 coupons, that contestant will rate higher in the prize awards than one who uses 140 coupons or any higher number up to 350 for solving the 70 correct answers.

If two or more persons, supplying the same number of correct answers, have used the same number of coupons for their answers, the highest rating will be given to the one whose answers are most neatly prepared, in the opinion of the judges.

No contestant will be allowed to submit more than one set of answers, which must include not less than 70 or more than 350 coupons, with accompanying pictures.

Positive no solution may be sent in to the Contest Editor until every one of the seventy pictures has been printed. Answers in complete sets, as just specified above, will then be received in this office, and should be addressed to "Contest Editor," Booklovers' Contest, Advocate Newark Ohio. The awards will be made strictly according to the correctness of each set of answers, and the correctness shall be determined by the Finding List, the catalogue issued by us as governing the Booklovers' Contest. This catalogue can be obtained from the Advocate office for 25c (27 cents if by mail), and will include in its 5000 titles every one used in the contest. Awards will be announced in this newspaper after the close of the contest.

It is not absolutely necessary to send in solutions on blanks clipped from the Advocate, as duplicate pictures may be drawn by the contestant, if he or she so desires, or duplicate blanks may be obtained at the office of the Newark (Ohio) Advocate.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush the Kidneys at once when Backache or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headache, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a teaspoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take clean and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

Horrible Blisters of Eczema Quickly cured by Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment. C. P. Caldwell, of New Orleans, La., states: "My doctor advised me to try 'Dr. Hobson's Eczema Salve.' I used three boxes of ointment and three cakes of Dr. Hobson's Dermazema Soap. Today I have not a spot anywhere on my body and can say I am cured." It will do the same for you. Its soothing, healing, antiseptic action will rid you of all skin humors, blackheads, pimples, Eczema blotches, red, unsightly sores, and leaves your skin clean and healthy. Get a box today. Guaranteed. All druggists, 50c, or by mail, Pfeiffer Chemical Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

Sixty thousand dollars a day is the estimate of the loss to the recent strike at Dublin, Ireland.

"CASCARETS" FIX SOUR STOMACHS

Gently move acids, mases and clogged up waste from Stomach, Liver and Bowels while you sleep.

Get a 10-cent box now. That awful soreness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, dizziness, and sick headache, means a disordered stomach, which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Cascarets: they immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended. A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

ALL READY FOR TONIGHT'S SHOW AT AUDITORIUM

Inclement weather did not interfere with the Elk parade this morning and members of the local lodge turned out in force for the third annual review of the boys of the antlered herd. Fletcher S. Scott, interlocutor, and the twelve men of the show led the procession followed by Col. Robert Doid's Buckeye band. Immediately in the rear of the latter organization was the minstrel committee, who has had charge of the staging of the show. Officers of the lodge and older members of the order in carriages. Then came the Elks on foot dressed in top black coats silk hats and carrying canes. The principal streets of the city and those around the a sixty foot car load of scenic and electric effects and is thereby enabled to give each play a complete scenic production.

This company while being new in this territory is sure to have a host of admirers. Just the same as they have had during the past three seasons, in the middle states. The Winifred St. Claire Company is presenting a strong line of plays. In some of these plays you'll not be able to hold back the laugh. You'll not want to. Try it.

Miss St. Claire and her company of stock players will begin an engagement at the Auditorium Theater, starting Monday February 23, with daily matinees.

STOPS HEAD NOISES CURES CATARRH AND PREVENTS DEAFNESS

This Simple, Harmless Treatment Cures the Head in a Few Minutes.

If you are troubled with Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness, Catarrhal Headache, head noises, dullness and that stuffed-up feeling, with frequent wheezing, sneezing spells, sore throat, asthma, Hay Fever or kindred affections, certainly you should try the Nostriola Treatment.

Nostriola is a simple, harmless, antiseptic, cleansing, healing balm, quickly reaches and heals the sore, inflamed mucous membranes, clears the head, opens the air passages, and in cases of Catarrhal deafness a few applications of this treatment frequently restores the senses of smell and hearing.

The nostrils and air passages are the breeding places for the Catarrhal germ. When the membranes become sore and inflamed you catch cold easily, and each new cold increases the inflammation. The Nostriola Treatment heals and strengthens the linings of the air passages so that they are able to resist and throw off colds.

Nostriola is put up in sanitary tubes—25c for sixty days' treatment. Buy a tube of your druggists today and you'll wish you had tried it sooner, for Nostriola is certainly worth its weight in gold to all who use it.

The King of All Laxatives For constipation, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. Paul Mathulka, of Buffalo, N. Y., says they are the "king of all laxatives. They are a blessing to all my family and I always keep a box at home." Get a box and get well again. Price 25c. At druggists or by mail, H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.

APPLE GROWING CONTESTS FOR THE OHIO FARM BOYS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Columbus, Feb. 19. Organization of apple growing contests for farm boys, prizes in which are to be free trips to Washington and the Ohio State Fair at Columbus, was started today by the state agricultural commission. Application blanks bearing the notice that the first 5,000 boys who enter the corn and apple growing contests will be given free trips to the State Fair, regardless of whether they win the Washington trip prize, were being prepared today and will be set out next week. Boys may secure them by writing to the commission at Columbus.

Quality of apples rather than quantity, which was the deciding factor in the corn growing contests, will determine the ranking of contestants in the apple contest. Freedom of fruit and trees from insects and fungous injury will count forty points in the score of 100. Other features in grading will be: Uniformity in grading; 25; mulching, cultivating or fertilizing; 15; record of operating; 10.

Following the application a boy must make periodical reports to judges of the apple contest in order to secure the trip to the state fair. Governor Cox promised several months ago to raise funds necessary to pay 5,000 boys expenses to the state fair. He declared he would go into counties and solicit donations from agricultural societies if he could not raise the money in other ways.

Cigarette smokers are to be barred from the contest. There will be two classes in the contest: One for farm orchards, and another for commercial orchards. Only boys who were under 20 years old January 1, may enter.

The Quickest, Simplest Cough Remedy

Easily and Cheaply Made at Home. Saves You $2.

This plan makes a pint of cough syrup—enough to last a family a long time. You couldn't buy as much or as good cough syrup for $2.50.

Simple as it is, it gives almost instant relief and usually conquers an ordinary cough in 24 hours. This is partly due to the fact that it is slightly laxative, stimulates the appetite and has an excellent tonic effect. It is pleasant to take—children like it. An excellent remedy, too, for whooping cough, spasmodic croup and bronchial asthma.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 3/4 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

Pinex is one of the oldest and best known remedial agents for the throat membranes. A compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in quassia and other natural healing elements. Other preparations will not work in this combination.

The prompt results from this mixture have endeared it to thousands of housewives in the United States and Canada, which explains why the plan has been imitated often, but never successfully. A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

CHIEF JUSTICE

Observes Twentieth Anniversary of His Appointment to the Supreme Court Bench.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, Feb. 19.—Chief Justice White today observed the twentieth anniversary of his appointment to the Supreme court bench. The twentieth anniversary of his service on the bench will not occur until March 12.

The anniversary recalled the bitter contest which preceded Chief Justice White's appointment as an associate justice on the bench.

The chief justice has many years to serve before he approaches the record for long service in the court. Chief Justice Marshall and Justices Field and Harlan are credited with more than 33 years service each.

Get a 25 cent bottle and make your hair lustrous, fluffy, abundant—Stops falling hair.

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—That's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp; forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes, but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and love of it, surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.

ALASKAN BILL

Nearly Ready for Signature of President—Provides for Building 1,000 Miles of Railroad.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, Feb. 19.—Administration leaders were confident today that before the end of the week President Wilson would put his signature to the bill authorizing him to build a thousand miles of railroad from an Alaskan seaport to tap the great coal fields in the interior of the territory. The measure has passed both branches of congress by overwhelming votes, and today advanced to the stage of conference on house amendments with everybody anxious for its passage to the White House.

As passed by the House last night 230 to 87, the bill would provide that the president construct the railroad with $35,000,000 to be appropriated as needed from the treasury, $1,000,000 being made available immediately, and, in his own discretion, to have the line operated by the government or leased to private contractors. The Senate bill proposed a bond issue of $40,000,000 to be redeemed out of Alaska's resources to finance the project.

Bob's Best Moving Picture Story

'A STRENUOUS SCOOP' Selig.

CHAPTER I.
TARKI
It was the city editor of the Daily Yell who spoke. This is an unnecessary piece of information because there was but one voice like that in the world. It was a voice distinct and peculiar, a voice the only known counterpart of which was the squeal of a stricken sea lion. The gentleman to whom the city editor's remark was addressed was Robert Stark, referred to by his intimates and an admiring family as "Bobby." Mr. Stark was a cub reporter. The stage of his journalistic development was indicated by his overcoat. It looked like a carpet and hung from his shoulders like a tent. Mr. Stark didn't know anything about the newspaper business, but he had been in it long enough to know his master's voice. "Yes, sir," responded Mr. Stark. "Mme. Bordica, the opera singer, is in town. Interview her. If you don't get the interview don't come back."

CHAPTER II.
Five minutes after Mr. Stark had taken his departure the Daily Yell local room was experiencing one of its daily fits. Word had come by telephone from police headquarters that "Dago Frank," wanted for many crimes, was at large in the city. The city editor was at his best. In sixty seconds he discharged five reporters and two photographers and lured them over again at increased salaries, thus demonstrating not only his temperament but his versatility. Having accomplished this feat of journalism he delivered himself of the following memorable order: "Find 'Dago Frank.' Bring him to this office for an exclusive interview—dead or alive."

CHAPTER III.
Meanwhile "Dago Frank," the celebrated criminal, and Robert Stark, cub reporter, were approaching the Grand Regis hotel. The Grand Regis was where Mme. Bordica was stopping. "Dago Frank" was making better time than the reporter, for an excellent reason. A couple of plain clothes policemen were only two jumps behind him. Thus it happened that "Dago Frank" reached the hotel first. He dodged into an alley and then into an arway. Finally he bolted into the basement of the hotel. There the policemen lost him. From the basement "Dago Frank" made his way to one of the upper floors. Looking for a hiding place, he stepped, accidentally, in Mme. Bordica's apartments.

CHAPTER IV.
The suite was vacant. Mme. Bordica had just stepped out for a walk. On the floor of her reception room, scattered about where her maid had left them, were wigs, robes and all the paraphernalia of theatrical makeup. The sight of them was inspiration for the cornered crook. In a moment he was making himself up as a woman. He had just finished when the door of the suite opened. Enter Mr. Robert Stark, bowing politely. "My city editor has sent me for an interview," stated Mr. Stark. The disguised thief did not answer. He bowed swiftly and silently for the door. CHAPTER V. Reporter Stark's orders were to get that interview. So far as his journalistic career was concerned he had no choice in the matter. It was a case of life or death. So the reporter ran after the supposed opera singer. She flung herself down the stairs. She dodged into an alley. She fled to a park. "This is a queer way for a prima donna to act," thought the reporter, "but it's all in the day's work." The supposed singer fled through the park underbrush and shinned up a tree. The reporter followed. Finally the thief could go no farther. Then the reporter got out his notebook and announced himself ready to take what the diva might have to say. What she might have said under the circumstances probably would have proved interesting, but unfortunately at that moment a park policeman made his appearance below with the information that the interviewer, and the interviewee were under arrest. Reporter Stark descended without further persuasion. Not so the supposed Mme. Bordica. The reserves had to be called out. Eventually, however, she came down. CHAPTER VI. The policemen marched their two prisoners triumphantly to the station. There the thief, seeing all was lost, made a desperate attempt to dislocate the reporter's face. The police seized him. In the midst of a wig and robe were torn away, disclosing a face and figure well known in police circles. "My boy," said the desk sergeant, addressing Reporter Stark, "there's a reward of $1,000 on this man's head. I want to congratulate you. You've earned it." But Reporter Stark was busy on the telephone. "Hah," he said to the city editor, "I've got the greatest story in the world."

"THE SEA WOLF." By Jack London.

JACK LONDON'S story, "The Sea Wolf," is shown in motion pictures at Ziegfeld's theater. Nothing, apparently, has been spared to give the motion picture story the action and "punch" which made the book a success. In vividness and realism the pictures are remarkable. It is a story of a sea captain, Wolf Larsen. He is known to the seafaring men as the "Sea Wolf." His character is that of a materialist. The whole interest of the story is centered in Larsen. The principal character in the story, besides the "Sea Wolf," is that of a young literary critic.

The audience is made acquainted with the literary critic when a ferry boat, on which he is a passenger crossing San Francisco bay, is wrecked. The first real thrill is given by the panic scene on the ferry boat. Men and women are shown fighting frantically for life preservers. They rush to the lifeboats, but the crew can do nothing, and each lifeboat is capsized.

The young critic swims and is picked up by Wolf Larsen's ship, The Ghost. It is only a few hours away from San Francisco and the spectators witness the treatment accorded "shanghaied" sailors. When the young critic is taken aboard and revived, he is made cabin boy and his predecessor is sent to the "fo'c'sle." This angers the former cabin boy, who had not bargained to ship as a sailor, and he protests. Then the Sea Wolf knocks the boy cold with his fist. The other sailors start forward.

One look at the Sea Wolf's face stops them. Then he laughs his derision and shakes his fist in their faces. He treats his crew to an example of his strength when he picks a potato from a basket and crushes it to a pulp between his fingers.

The young critic sees two opposite natures in the Sea Wolf. One night when a member of the crew talks mutiny, he is called to Larsen's cabin. The Sea Wolf is reading the Bible when the sailor walks in. The Sea Wolf calmly closes the Bible and springs at the sailor's throat. He beats him into insensibility.

The crew mutinies and throws Larsen overboard. He catches the "log line" and pulls himself back on board. The leaders of the mutiny take to a small boat and try to escape. Larsen follows them. He keeps his ship beside their boat, but makes no effort to take them aboard. Finally the men in the small boat become exhausted and beg for food. He mocks them and when the small boat finally capsizes he lets them drown.

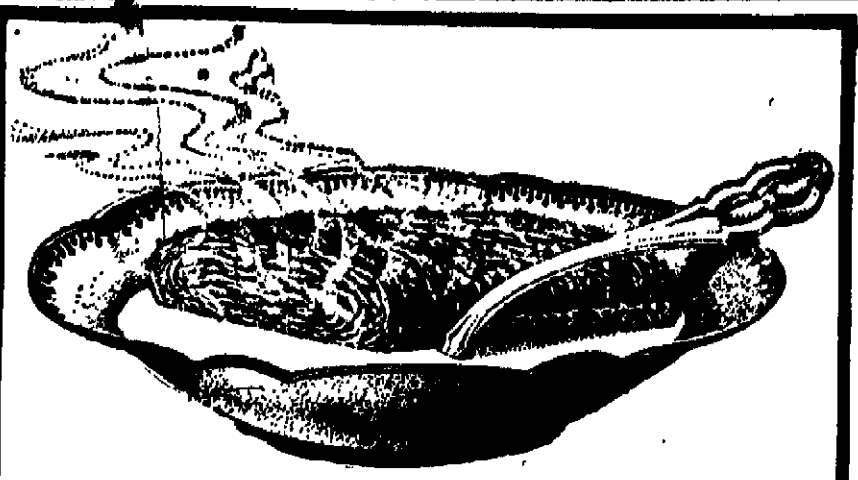

Then the survivors of a wrecked ship are picked up by The Ghost and one of the rescued party is a girl. One night Larsen enters the cabin he has given her. The young critic hears her cries and runs to the rescue. He attacks Larsen, but is brushed aside. Just at the point where the girl seems to be part all help the captain is stricken blind.

The girl and the young critic desert in a small boat. Larsen wanders and stumbles about the deck of his ship. Just after the critic and the girl leave, another ship comes in sight. The captain of this is "Death" Larsen, brother of the Sea Wolf. He causes the crew of The Ghost to desert to his own. Then he leaves the blind Sea Wolf alone to his fate.

The Sea Wolf's ship is wrecked on the island on which the young critic and the girl have landed. The picture shows the wrecked and dismantled ship on the reefs.

The young critic and the girl board the ship and Larsen makes one desperate attempt to kill the man, but is foiled. He becomes paralyzed and for revenge sets fire to his bed. The ship is saved, but Larsen loses his life.

HAMILTON AGAIN SUFFERER FROM HEAVY RAINSTORM

(Associated Press Telegram) Hamilton, O., Feb. 19.—Hamilton is tied up today because of the snow, rain and frozen river. The ice in the river north of temporary High and Main street bridge, broke up during the night and piled up against the piling structure to such an extent that the bridge was closed to traffic today, cutting off the West Side from the East Side. The only connection between the two sections of the city today is the Black street cable bridge, which can only accommodate foot passengers. Every effort is being made today to save the High and Main street structures, but if this cannot be done Hamilton will be about as completely separated as it was during the flood of last March.

RIOT AT CATHOLIC CHURCH RESULTS IN FIVE ARRESTS

Quite a number of people from White Chapel enjoyed a sleighing party on Tuesday evening. The party was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Musselman and journeyed to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kinney. The self-invited guests enjoyed a delicious oyster supper.

Those in the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Musselman and daughter Miss Mary, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Dicken and daughter Mary, Mr. E. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Yowell, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. George Olson and daughter Miss Eva, Mr. and Mrs. George Coyle and daughter Miss Florence, Mr. and Mrs. C. Clem and daughter Miss Helen, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kinney and son and daughter, Miss Mary Kinney and Mr. Hirst.

Mrs. Charles A. Smith was the delightful hostess entertaining the Progressive club on Wednesday afternoon at her home in Hudson avenue. The following interesting program was given from the calendar:

Roll call, Progress in the Church—Arranged by Mrs. Tullis. Great Male Voices of a Century—Mrs. Windle. Readings from the Nibelung: Das Rheingold—Die Walkure—Mrs. M. Montgomery. Die Siegfried—Die Gotterdammerung—Miss Tucker.

The anniversary business meeting of the Willing Workers Sunday school class of the East Main Street M. E. church was held in the church parlors Tuesday evening, February 17, it being just one year ago that the class was organized with the two-fold aim in view, namely, a more comprehensive study of the Sunday school lessons and to be able to do more and better work for the church. With but a dozen couples at the start they now have about forty couples active members and three honorary members.

After the opening of the meeting it was decided to have the entertainment features first and all had the pleasure of an excellent recitation by Mrs. Hull and a history of the class by Mrs. Long, the secretary.

Following this came the regular business of the evening which included the election of officers as follows: Mr. Carl Hime, president; Mrs. Long, secretary; Mrs. DeWalt, treasurer, and Mr. Guy Taylor chairman of the press committee.

After the business of the evening was concluded all adjourned to the dining room where plates were laid for forty and all enjoyed a delicious spread.

All were well pleased with the evening and expressed themselves as hoping to have next year better than this, and after a short period of social intercourse, the happy crowd left for their homes, carrying with them the memory of a delightful evening.

The members of the Extension club held a delightful card party in the Knights of Columbus rooms on Wednesday evening. The hours were devoted to euchre.

The Alfretha club will entertain with a tango masquerade on April 16, at Assembly hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Don D. Tullis have invited the Young People of the Second Presbyterian church to meet at the manse this evening for the first business and social meeting of the newly organized Senior Christian Endeavor society. It is hoped a large number will attend.

The ladies of the Baptist church are entertaining in the church parlors this afternoon with a Martha Washington tea.

Mrs. Harry Starr entertained with a pretty evening party on Thursday, at her home in East Main street. The hours were devoted to bridge and the souvenirs for the game were awarded to Miss Lulu Starr and Miss Celia Schlaechter of Columbus.

GOLDEN JUBILEE CELEBRATION OF PYTHIAN KNIGHTS

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, Feb. 19.—Washington today commanded the attention of the Knights of Pythias scattered over the broad domain of the North American continent as they simultaneously commemorated their "golden jubilee" in more than seven thousand communities. The observance here was participated in by six thousand delegates to the annual convention of the Supreme Council of the order, which began sessions to continue until Saturday night.

Chief among the events on today's program was the address of Secretary of State Bryan, himself the past chancellor of the Lincoln Lodge, K. of P., Lincoln, Neb., on "Fraternalism Exemplified by the Order of the Knights of Pythias."

DESCENDANT OF ADMIRAL JOHN PAUL JONES DIES

(Associated Press Telegram) Pau, France, Feb. 19.—George Deval, a great, great grand nephew of Admiral John Paul Jones, died here today at the age of 12. He was well educated with a view to entering the naval academy at Annapolis.

The lad had been adopted by an American lady after the death of his grandmother, Marian Stuart Gombault, a grand niece of Paul Jones.

U. S. "MIDNIE" DISMISSED. (Associated Press Telegram) Washington, Feb. 19.—Dismissal of Midshipman V. I. McClure, of Olathe, Kas., from the naval academy, in charges of irregularities in an examination was approved today by President Wilson. The cases of two midshipmen implicated with him were not acted upon.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Common Garden Sage and Sulphur Makes Streaked, Faded or Gray Hair Dark and Glossy At Once.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly.

You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Agents, Hall's Drug Store.

OPENS UP NOSTRILS, CLEARS HEAD, ENDS COLDS OR CATARRH AT ONCE

Instantly Relieves Swollen, Inflamed Nose, Head, Throat—You Breathe Freely—Dull Headache Goes—Nasty Discharge Stops.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm." Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning! the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharge and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight, struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

LITTLE DISCUSSIONS OF LOVE AND MARRIAGE

BY BARBARA BOYD

Progressive Standards for Marriage.

"I wish so many women were not satisfied with the old-time standards set for wifehood. They are so restricted," mused the Bachelor Girl.

"That's the last thing to worry about," responded the Bachelor. "Judging by the divorce records of today, precious few women are satisfied with the old-time standards. That's the trouble."

"No," objected the Bachelor Girl, "the trouble is that the standards are not moved forward to give more room for growth. And so women jump over the fence. The better way would be to enlarge the pasture. Then they wouldn't want to jump."

"In just what way, for instance, would you enlarge the marital enclosure?" inquired the Bachelor.

"What set me to thinking about it," ruminated the Bachelor Girl, "was the enthusiastic description I heard today of a wife. It seems she is a good cook, an immaculate housekeeper, a clever dressmaker—for she makes the children's clothes and keeps the youngsters as neat as a pin. Her house shines, her children shine. I presume her husband shines, though he wasn't mentioned. She is frugal and economical, for she keeps her expenses down to a marvelously low figure. She bustles around from morning till night, and from one week to another, and one year to another, keeping the household machinery running like clockwork. And my friends were singing her praises in crescendo."

"I should think they would," emphatically agreed the Bachelor. "She must be a jewel of the first water, the sort of person Solomon had in mind when he said her price was above rubies."

"But the world has moved since Solomon's time," observed the Bachelor Girl, gazing coldly upon the Bachelor. "You are just like the rest. This standard of wifely conduct is held up as the model to be striven for. And there are hundreds, yes thousands of women trotting around in this groove who are perfectly satisfied with themselves and their lives because it has been held up to them as the proper thing to do. And there are thousands of mothers, perhaps I should say mothers-in-law, who are delightedly patting their daughters on the back and telling them what good wives they are."

"Well, what's wrong with them?" asked the Bachelor.

"That they should think that this is the whole of life and be content to have it the whole of life. When this wife in question dies, even though she lives to be eighty, so far as mental or spiritual growth goes, she won't be a particle different from what she was when she was born. Her whole life will have been a treadmill of cooking, dishwashing, sewing, sweeping, and contentment therewith; because she has been taught to think this is her whole duty. That is the reason I say that when this is held up as the highest and holiest sphere of a wife, it is too restricted. A wife is a human being, as well as a wife; and the need, the necessity of humanity is to grow. And that's the reason when real live women find that in the matrimonial pasture they aren't allowed to grow because it is not compatible with their duty as a wife and mother, they jump over the fence. Or if they discover it before hand," concluded the Bachelor Girl, looking calmly and steadily at the Bachelor, "they refuse to be led in."

GIRL BURIED NEAR SPOT OF HER MURDER

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Aurora, Ill., Feb. 19.—Near the spot where she was murdered with a scimitar Monday night, the body of 20-year-old Theresa Hollander was buried today in St. Michael's cemetery.

Later in the day the coroner's inquest of the murder will be resumed. The girl's father is expected to testify regarding a conversation he said he had with his daughter about an hour before she was murdered. Hollander said his daughter told him she had quarreled that evening with Anthony Petras, a former sweetheart, who is under arrest in connection with the murder.

Petras, who is married, attempted to stop Miss Hollander's marriage to Nicholas Feltner, to whom she was engaged, according to the father's story.

The police hope to fix the responsibility for the crime today by determining the ownership of a penknife which was found yesterday near the scene of the murder. The knife formerly was the property of Frank Darlmont, who worked in a factory with Petras. The knife was lost two years ago, according to Darlmont, who now lives in Chicago. Darlmont, however, presented an alibi which the police consider sufficient.

The police discovered a new witness today whose testimony they say will go far to prove that Anthony Petras whose suit Theresa Hollander rejected, is the man who beat her to death with a bludgeon in a cemetery Monday night. Peter Elschbach, a fellow student of Petras at a night school, said Petras left the school saying he was going home while as a matter of fact he went down town. About 9 o'clock Elschbach says he saw Petras standing idly in the center of the business district.

Petras told him, Elschbach said, that he was going to catch a car but when his car came along he did not board it. This was the car just before the one on which Petras and the Hollander girl went home.

The police theory was that Petras waited to see what car Miss Hollander took and they believe Elschbach's story has confirmed their supposition.

$17.50 PAINT BOOKLOVERS' FINE PRIZE

A prize that will be appreciated by many is Ten Gallons of Paint purchased from the Marietta Paint & Color company. This means $17.50 worth of best grade Aurora house paint—any color desired by the winner of this prize in the Advocate's big Booklovers' Contest.

The Marietta Paint & Color Co. was established in this city in its present location about nine years ago with R. S. McKay as manager, and, since Mr. McKay went to the Columbus store two years ago, Mr. T. S. Horner, the present manager, has most successfully conducted the business.

The store now fronts on the Arcade and on Church street, and is one of the most experienced and the largest exclusive paint houses in Central Ohio. It handles a general line of paints, brushes, oil, varnish, stain and fillers—everything that could possibly be required in this line. It conducts both a wholesale and retail business.

Mr. Horner will be glad to show you this fine prize at any time—Just think, what a splendid opportunity to get your home newly painted. Get busy in the Advocate's profitable Amusement Contest.

CALIFORNIA IS FLOOD BOUND FOR THE SECOND TIME

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 19.—Southern California was floodbound today as a result of a downpour which started at midnight Tuesday and yielded from six to eight inches of rain in the thirty-two hours ending at 8 a. m. today. Railroad traffic was paralyzed in the cities the streets were turned into mill races. Storm drains were overtaxed and irrigation canals widened into lakes.

The storm brought a recurrence of flood conditions that attended the rain fall of a month ago. Railroad tracks on both sides of Santa Barbara were washed out. Bridges were also torn out.

Throughout the citrus belt wash-outs blocked trains.

DAVIS HAD GIRL IN CAMP AT CAMBRIDGE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cambridge, O., Feb. 19.—The officials of the Children's home here cast doubt upon the belief that the girl held by Mayor Jones at Middleport, Ohio, is missing Catherine Winters of Newcastle, Ind. They say that a man named Joe Davis had a girl of the same name, Rosie Davis, with him in a camp near here three years ago, that she was taken from him by humane officers and placed in the home April 17, 1911.

Later he kidnapped the girl from the home, was captured, sent to the Ohio penitentiary for burglary, where he served two years, and after his discharge returned here and claimed the child who was discharged to him August 7, 1912. The girl was born Dec. 25, 1901, at homes records show. Davis, at Middleport, has been reported as saying the girl was at one time in the Cambridge home and the youngest held at Middleport may be the same one that was here, in which case, she is not the Winters girl, who was not kidnapped until last March.

WAR AGAINST CIGARETTES IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Feb. 19.—The war against the cigarettes is going to be carried into the public schools, if Mrs. Jennie Hobson Milligen, state superintendent of the anti-cigarette league, can get permission from the board of education. She is going to call upon the board as soon as possible and ask them to permit her and several physicians to visit public schools after hours and paint with silver nitrate the throats of all little boys and girls who ask for the treatment.

"There are a few girls who come to me too," said Mrs. Milligen. "They are always terribly ashamed, but they say they have learned to smoke from some older girls and now they can't get rid of the habit. They are afraid their mothers will find out about it."

APPROVED AS DEPOSITORY.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Feb. 19.—The Farmers and Merchants Bank of Caldwell, Noble county has been approved as a depository for state funds, state treasurer Brennan announced today. The western reserve national bank of Warren, was awarded $40,000 deposits today.

Now Does Her Own Work, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her.

Ironton, Ohio.—"I am enjoying better health now than I have for twelve years. When I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I could not sit up. I had female troubles and was very nervous. I used the remedies a year and I can do my work and for the last eight months I have worked for other women, too. I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough for I know I never would have been as well if I had not taken it and I recommend it to suffering women."

Daughter Helped Also.

"I gave it to my daughter when she was thirteen years old. She was in school and was a nervous wreck, and could not sleep nights. Now she looks so healthy that even the doctor speaks of it. You can publish this letter if you like."—Mrs. RENA BOWMAN, 161 S. 10th Street, Ironton, Ohio.

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out and drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham, Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

ARE YOUR KIDNEYS WELL?

Many Newark People Know the Importance of Healthy Kidneys. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. Weak kidneys remove impurities. Weak kidneys allow impurities to multiply.

No kidney ill should be neglected. There is possible danger in delay. If you have backache or urinary troubles.

If you are nervous, dizzy or worn out. Begin treating your kidneys at once; Use a proven kidney remedy. None endorsed like Doan's Kidney Pills.

Recommended by thousands. Proved by Newark testimony. Richard Conley, 24 Bowers avenue, Newark, Ohio, says: "I had backaches and my kidneys were weak. The kidney secretions contained sediment. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from A. F. Crayton & Co.'s Drug Store, and it did not take them long to bring me relief."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Conley had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. 60

DECISION ON RATE INCREASE EXPECTED IN THREE MONTHS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Feb. 19.—Decision by the interstate commerce commission on the proposed freight rate increase is expected to be reached probably within three months and certainly before the commission adjourns for its summer recess on July 1. This announcement substantially, was made by Commissioner Harlan.

Mr. Harlan expressed the desire of the commission that the commercial interests of Chicago, Detroit, Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Buffalo, come together at the hearings prepared to advise the commission of switching and spur track conditions existing in those cities. Other cities also may be heard from. At those hearings none of the services to and from and within industrial plants will be considered.

It is the desire of the commission to obtain from all interests information as to what the charge should be for the placing of cars and for the use of sidings and spurs.

On March 4 and 5 the question of a charge for placing cars for loading on spur tracks leading to coal mines and coke ovens will be considered. That will include consideration of the cancellation by carriers of allowances to industrial roads of coal companies and to mine operators. March 6 and 7 have been reserved for the hearing of the protests against the proposed increase in coal rates; and March 9, 10 and 11 have been set aside for the hearing of general objections to the proposed general increase in rates and for hearing reports of the state railroad commissions.

That part of the case that pertains to the proposed increases in lake and rail rates will be heard at Washington on March 12, 13 and 14.

ULEY CRAIG IS HELD ON 4 CHARGES

In a raid conducted by Police Chief J. S. Sheridan and Captain Charles Swank with a squad of six patrolmen at 9:30 Wednesday night Uley Craig, colored who has operated a place in South Fourth street, was arrested and four charges were filed against him in police court, Thursday morning. He is charged in two affidavits with illegal sale of liquor, in another with permitting opium to be smoked in his place and in the fourth with running a house of ill repute. He was held under bond of $50 on the latter charge and $250 each for the other three charges.

Besides Craig, an even dozen of men and women were taken into custody and will be held as witnesses.

Police officials claim that Craig sold liquor Wednesday night to men and women in the place and that similar offenses were committed last Sunday.

When the raid was made, Police Chief James Sheridan found an opium pipe still hot, indicating that its user had abandoned it hastily. It was lying under a bed in one of the rooms. The spirit lamp which is used with the opium outfit was still burning beside the bed.

FRANK CHANCE, BASEBALL HERO, NOW REAL HERO

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Glendora, Cal., Feb. 19.—Frank Chance, the baseball manager, saved the lives of his brother-in-law, Karl Pancake, and two other men in the floods caused by the storm yesterday.

Pancake, Charles Gordon and Samuel Riser, were riding in a motor car when a retaining wall gave way and loosened a wall of water five feet deep on them. The car was overturned and the men swept through an orchard near Chance's place.

Chance witnessed the accident, and, procuring ropes, floated them down to where the imperiled men were clinging to trees. All managed to grasp the ropes and were dragged to safety.

drinking earlier in the evening and many thought that he was in the cottage and had been unable to escape.

As soon as the blaze had been sufficiently controlled, an inspection of the ruins was made by members of the fire department. But the smoke was so dense and the heat so great it was impossible to get near the place where Stilton was believed to be.

The only possible means of exit was through two windows on the north side and a door in the front. The cottage was divided into two rooms, the sleeping room being in the rear.

More water was thrown on the ruins in order that an inspection might be made. After this had been done a rush was made to the bedroom of the missing man. Nothing was to be seen on the bed but some fallen timbers from the roof.

When this discovery was made it was generally believed that Stilton would not be found in the cottage, as it was thought by many he had come to Newark.

President Chamberlain took charge of the search. He suspected that the body was in the ruins and his intuition was correct. He asked one of the firemen to make a careful search in the vicinity of the bed. The fireman, followed by President Chamberlain and others, climbed over the smoking ruins to the sleeping room.

The first attempt was successful. After moving some debris on the west side of the bed the white skull of the missing man, covered with blood, was brought to view. The remainder of his body lay beneath some fallen timbers which had to be moved in order to get at the body.

Directed by President Chamberlain a portion of the rear wall of the house was removed in order that the bed could be taken out.

In the yard the body of Stilton was uncovered. Devoid of clothing and covered with blood and ashes it was an uncanny spectacle. The skull had apparently been crushed by the falling roof or chimney, his arm was terribly mangled.

A stretcher was secured from undertaker J. M. Jones and after wrapping the body in a blanket it was taken to the undertaking rooms.

The fire is thought to have originated from an overheated coal stove situated in the middle of the cottage close to the partition which separated the two rooms of the building. Stilton was in the habit of keeping a hot fire in the stove.

The dead man had been working on the T. & O. Railroad as a section hand for the past two years. His wife died soon after he came here and his only companions were his dog and cat. The latter perished with him while his faithful dog having been locked up in an outbuilding was saved and anxiously sought his master.

Stilton carried a Metropolitan insurance policy at Newark for $235, which sum is to go with his estate. Numerous inquiries as to the names of his relatives failed to reveal anything definite except that his father who is 6 years old was living at Cambridge, O., and that he had recently visited there.

sensation that had been brewing in the staid old village of Fredericktown for some time, and which burst a week ago Sunday, when Mr. Chapin announced from his pulpit that he was experiencing serious trouble in his domestic affairs. A few days later there were more developments, and at a meeting of deacons of the church, together with all the parties directly connected with the matter, the preacher announced that his wife wished to have her name dropped from the church membership roll. Action was taken accordingly and the name of Dr. Wright was also dropped. In the meantime both the minister and Dr. Wright had retained lawyers here.

Immediately afterwards Mrs. Chapin came to Mr. Vernon and has since been employed in a boarding house here as a domestic. To a reporter Mrs. Chapin said that there is no truth in any charge made against herself and Dr. Wright. She said that she had made a confidant of the dentist, but vigorously denied that there was ever anything criminal between them.

"I was 18 years of age when I married Mr. Chapin, and we have been incompatible since within five or six months of the date of our wedding," said Mrs. Chapin. "He loves another girl and has told me so," she added. "After our trouble broke I went to my husband's study and turned on the gas, intending to commit suicide. Mr. Chapin found me and then told me again of his love for another girl. He never corresponded with her and was always true to me in that respect," said Mrs. Chapin.

The minister's wife then related that the woman to whom reference had been made was an acquaintance of her husband before he located in the West and that she is a prominent teacher where she resides—a good, straight-forward girl, as Mrs. Chapin put it.

"Mr. Chapin's unkindness literally drove me into Dr. Wright's arms," declared Mrs. Chapin. Pressed as to what she meant by this, she said that she meant that she went to Dr. Wright and confided to him her unhappiness. She said that her husband had ordered her to leave home.

"I will not oppose his divorce action, and as I am in a helpless condition financially I have promised him that I will allow him possession of our children," continued the wife. "I will remain here until this is settled, and then I don't know what will become of me. I must bear the brunt of the trouble," she added.

The whole affair is an extremely sad one. Mr. Chapin's sister, Miss Elsie Chapin of New London, is assisting him in the care of the two children.

Mrs. Chapin is 25 years old. She was Mable Cromwell before her marriage to the preacher at Glenwood Springs more than six years ago.

Dr. Wright, who is named in the minister's divorce petition is a dentist practicing in Fredericktown where he has resided for several years. He is a member of a well to do and highly respected family in the vicinity of Fredericktown.

He was at one time superintendent of the Baptist Sunday school and it was in the Sunday school work that he and the minister's wife first became acquainted.

Dr. Wright is married and has a family of children. It is reported that Mrs. Wright has forgiven her husband's alleged indiscretions and that she will bring no action for divorce.
